

Doctor of Philosophy in Information Technology (International Program)

Admission Requirement

The applicant must satisfy the following requirements:

- A bachelor's degree in computer-related fields from an accredited institution.
- Satisfy one of the following:
  - Having obtained at least 12 credit points in Thesis from the institution certified by the Commission on Higher Education.
  - Having obtained at least 6 credit points in Master Project from the institution certified by the Commission on Higher Education and having published at least 1 publication in an accredited journal or in academic conference.
  - Having obtained at least 3 credit points in Special Problem from the institution certified by the Commission on Higher Education and having published at least 2 publications in accredited journals or in academic conferences.
- Documentary evidence of English proficiency
  - TOEFL score of not less than 525 paper-based (196 computer-based)
OR
  - An overall IELTS score of not less than 5.5.
  - The student must also take the IDP English proficiency test provided by IDP on the examination/interview date and obtains the score of not less than 5.5.
- For the student who does not meet the requirements, the final decision is at the discretion of the department.

Tuition Fee and Period of Study

The tuition fee for Doctor of Philosophy in Information Technology (International Program) is 75,000 THB per semester over the period of 3 years. The study period is 3-5 years (2 semesters per year). After the first 3 years, the tuition fee will no longer be applied and the student will need to pay only 10,000 THB per semester for maintaining student status until the completion of the degree.

Graduation Requirements

The student must satisfy the following criteria to graduate in Master of Science in Information Technology (International Program)

- Publish at least 2 publications in accredited domestic journals or 1 publication in an international journal.
- Other graduation criteria are as specified by the Graduate College of King Mongkut's Institute of Technology North Bangkok.